FLAIR #LOVES

By Daniela Bonetto

A SLICE OF NYC

New York architect David Rockwell and his studio the Rockwell Group has teamed up with Surface magazine to celebrate its 25th anniversary with The Diner, a celebration of American design, presented as an unforgettable contemporary interpretation of the archetypal roadside restaurant. The installation, which is being staged in one of the cavernous vaults under the famous Milano Centrale train station as part of Ventura Centrale by Ventura Projects, will immerse visitors in four distinct environments. This installation is not to be missed!

[The Diner, Via Ferrante Aporti 11, Milan;]

A SPLENDID WORLD

Artefatto who is the fairest of them all? Well of course its Snow White. Launching at Salone, the collection for Scarlet Splendor. For their first collab they showcase some beautiful design crafted with the softest sheepskin leather and held by golden frames. Time for some serious lounging

(POA, scarletsplendour.com)

HANG LOOSE!

Don't know about you but I loathe seeing coats bunched up and hanging messily on coat hooks near the door. But perhaps this spring we have a surprisingly beautiful solution. Feel light as a butterfly while welcoming your guests to undress {erm, within reason} with the new Coat Hanger by Artemest. Absolutely gorgeous!

{Butterfly coat rack by Ghidini 1961, £1660; artemest.com}