

TRENDWATCH Into the woods

Forage for fresh designs

1 Butterfly Hook, £135, Ghidini 1961 2 Savenake Forest by Richard Osbourne, made to measure murals from £60 per sqm, Tektura Wallcoverings 3 Tree candlestick, £269, BoConcept 4 Alcott Faux Stag Wall Decoration in Soft Bronze, £34, Perch & Parrow 5 Gold Bunny Money Box, Playing, £59, Pals Potten 6 Vejleket Plate, 20cm, £19.50, Marimekko 7 Indie Wood Bugs n Beetles Cushion, £60, Timorous Beasties 8 Menagerie deer, £98, Jonathan Adler 9 Lucero Origami Style Bird Table Lamp, £165, Out There Interiors 10 Animaux coaster, Fox, £5, Puddlin' Head for Avenida Home 11 Kazu Dining Table, £13,083, Arteriors Stockists on page 272

EXPERT TIPS

"Taking influences from Scandinavian design, the use of natural materials has moved on to include woodland prints such as forest scenes, and animal prints," says Jenny Hurren of Out There Interiors. "During the warmer months, update the look with brighter, more tropical leaves and animals and when autumn sets in, layer up with faux fur throws and opt for stags and foxes to bring in that winter feel," she says.